U. S. FLEET IN TRIESTE SOON; JOY OVER ALLIES' ARRIVAL

Victory of Italians Causes Demonstrations and Ringing of Bells-Cheers for King. Army and Navy.

AMSTERDAM, Sunday, Nov. 3 .- It is very positively reported from Pola, the Austrian naval base on the Adriatic, that Trieste will soon be occupied by an American fleet.

[On Sunday it was reported from Paris that the Jugo-Slav leaders, after having selzed the Austro-Hungarian fleet at Flume, had sent a wireless message to President Wilson stating their readiness to hand over the vessels to the United States Government or representatives of the Allied navies.]

ROME, Sunday, Nov. 3 .- Bonfires are burning to-night on all the hills throughout Italy, spreading far and wide the news of the occupation of Trieste. Church bells were ringing and guns were fired. Throngs cheered the King, Army and Navy. Windows in the city were illuminated to-night regardless of the police orders concerning restricted lighting. Newspapers issued extras, describing the entrance of Italian forces into

The Italian troops who occupied Trieste were taken there on transports escorted by destroyers and gunboats. The Italian flag was hoisted on the tower of the Cathedral of San Giusto and on public buildings Private dweilings also were decorated with the Italian colors. The population acclaimed the Italian Bersaglieri enthusiastically. The warships entered the harbor with their yards lined with flags.
